About the CRPCN
Primary Care Networks, created by joint venture agreements between physician organizations and Alberta Health Services, were created to ensure that patients have seamless access to consistent and comprehensive primary health care. Since 2006, the CRPCN has been building capacity to fulfill this mandate. Primary care in general has moved to the forefront of our health care system. Our PCN works closely with Alberta Health Services, Alberta Health and the Alberta Medical Association to ensure we are fulfilling the objectives that have been provided to us and to ensure clear accountability.
